

Curriculum Vitae

Dr. Marios Tapis graduated from Aristotle University of Thessaloniki Medical School in 1995, and after relevant training sequentially in Thessaloniki Cancer Hospital, in Aghia Sophia Children's Hospital and Evangelismos Tertiary Hospital in Athens, he received, after the required examinations, the title of Specialist ENT Surgeon in 2001.

He subsequently worked in the UK in Royal Surrey County Hospital between 2001 and 2002. Upon returning to Greece and in the context of the mandatory, in Greece, rural service, he worked as a MD with ENT duties at Tinos Island Health Center and subsequently practiced privately as an ENT Specialist in Tinos island for another two years.

Subsequently he practiced privately ENT in Athens, having affiliations with various private hospitals while between 2007-2009 he had the scientific responsibility of the ENT department of a private clinic of a large private group in Healthcare (Iatriko Athinon Peristeri Clinic).

Between 2009-2012 he was also employed as the ENT specialist of the insurance fund of the Greek Merchant Navy.

He returned to Cyprus in 2012 and worked until the beginning of 2018 as ENT Surgeon Specialist at Larnaca General Hospital.

He is actively involved in the diagnosis and treatment of the whole spectrum of ENT Diseases, with a special interest in endoscopic ear, nose and sinus surgery as well as functional and aesthetic nose surgery.

He is also intimately involved in pediatric Otorhinolaryngology and neurotology problems (dizziness, balance and hearing problems).

As of the 1st May 2018 he is in private practice in Nicosia and Larnaca and is an Associate of Areaieio Private Hospital. .